"How did you got rid of the girl?" – "We ate her!" Welcome in the world of Nekro Drunkz!

The duo from the US-northeast coast describe themselves as vendors of "Toilet Metal". Well, there is nothing more to say, if we look at the cover, song titles and the instrumentalization.

It is to say for those who read on that the third album of the band offers a highly enjoyable half hour of finest Grindcore. One can classify it as "Love it or hate it!"-album, but my opinion is that there are even good or bad bands in the genre of porn-/slaughter/fecal- grindcore. Indeed, "Absolute Filth" is definitely one of the better releases.

Now, let's talk about the sound. It is that good that some established bands would be proud of it. Especially the sound of the drums is the Achilles heel of many Goregrind bands. However, even the blastbeasts of Nekro Drunkz sound organic and forceful and aren't ruins of empty plastic sound.

The guys master the complete range of musical knowledge and offer everything from painfully slow and stamping to purely highspeed thrashing. The guitar riffs sound fresh and not like heard a thousand of times. This is precisely what truly carries weight with such a musically cramped genre.

Cheerfully, the vocalist changes between deep gurgeling, high screaming and everything in between.

They use a distortion pedal in some parts which only highlights the diversity. Nekro Drunkz acts absolutely serious and does a professional work. They are miles away from a fun-project at a level of rehearsalroom (what is unfortunately a part of all grindcore releases).

Conclusion:

There is no possible error: The third album of the duo is well-produced grindcore that is an unending spring of enthusiasm during the whole duration. Furthermore, it has an awesome sound!

Rating 8/10
